

You Are Invited to a

Retirement Reception

After 14 years of leading the Julian Samora Research Institute, Dr. Rubén Martínez stepped down as Director in October 2021 and will be retiring from Michigan State University on October 31, 2022.

Dr. Rubén Martínez

His research interests include neoliberalism and Latinos, diversity leadership in higher education, institutional and societal change, education and ethno-racial minorities, youth development, Latino labor and entrepreneurship, and environmental justice

Please join Dr. Martínez' family, MSU colleagues, the Office of University Outreach and Engagement and community members for a reception honoring his leadership, service, and work.

Friday, October 21, 2022, from 5:00-7:00pm
(Remarks at 5:30 p.m.)

The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum Michigan State University

Please RSVP at: <https://events.engage.msu.edu/MRR>

P. Lea Martínez Engaged Scholar Endowment Fund

Dr. Martínez and his family established an Endowment Fund in honor of his wife, P. Lea Martínez (1955-2014), who as a professional in the nation's healthcare systems, demonstrated the highest standards of caring by treating patients, co-workers, and students with respect and dignity. This fund supports graduate students conducting research on health issues among Latinos.

Donations may be made at: <https://givingto.msu.edu/gift/>.