We remember and honor loved ones who perished in the Genocide Against the Tutsi in 1994, support survivors, and look toward a future of healing and hope. We will do so by increasing awareness and understanding of the root causes and effects of the Genocide.

The afternoon starts with a Walk to Remember, followed by a short film, songs to remember, testimonials from survivors, a keynote address from the ambassador of Rwanda to the United States, and messages of hope.

GATHER FOR The Walk to Remember | 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. | Kellogg Center (meet at main entrance)
