

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

SCIENCE FESTIVAL

MSU MEDIA ADVISORY April 11, 2019 – Immediate Release

MSU Science Festival Runs through April 20 – More Fun During the 2nd Weekend of Events, April 12-14!

Friday, April 12, 2019 / 4-11 PM

Statewide Astronomy Night

Check out programs at the Abrams Planetarium or the MSU Observatory! A total of 13 events across Michigan...see the wonders in the sky!

Saturday, April 13, 2019 / 9 AM-4 PM

Take a Tour or Visit an Open House

Robotics, 3D printing, take DNA from a strawberry, or experience a slime station at MSU SciComm... Human brains at the Neuroscience Fair...Cows at the Dairy Teaching and Research Center... Insects at the MSU Bug House...Virtual Reality at the Digital Scholarship Lab...Water School at the MSU Broad Art Museum, learn about the National Superconducting Cyclotron or Fantastic Forest at Baker Woodlot... and much more! Choose from multiple tours and open houses!

Sunday, April 14, 2019 / 10 AM-4 PM

Detroit Expo Day

The MSU Detroit Center collaborated with partners in the Big D to offer a full day of MSU Science Festival events!

Don't Forget

Talks, Demonstrations, Performances, Science Cafes and Pubs, and Nights at the Museums! See the full schedule for all that the MSU Science Festival has to offer!

ABOUT THE MSU SCIENCE FESTIVAL:

- The Science Festival features more than 250 different offerings during 16 days, April 5-20
- It is the largest free science festival in Michigan.
- All events are FREE and open to the public.
- There is something for everyone: children, adults, and seniors.

WEBSITE: sciencefestival.msu.edu \(full schedule on web\)

CONTACT: Carla Hills, University Outreach and Engagement, Michigan State University,
(517) 353-8977 (office), or (517) 881-3009 (cell), hillsc@msu.edu

Facebook: @MsuScienceFestival

Twitter: @MSUSciFest

Instagram: @msuscifest

