A W A R D

Recognizing highly engaged community-based research, creative activity, teaching, and service collaborations that positively impact both the community and scholarship.

DEADLINE EXTENDED TO OCTOBER 17, 2016!

Michigan State University invites nominations for the Community Engagement Scholarship Award (CESA), conferred in recognition of exemplary engaged scholarship with a community partner.

One scholar and her/his partner will be recognized at the University's annual Awards Convocation on Tuesday, February 7, 2017. The partners will share a stipend of $5,000 ($2,500 each). The winning partnership will also represent MSU in the competition for the regional W. K. Kellogg Foundation Community Engagement Scholarship Awards and the national C. Peter Magrath Community Engagement Scholarship Award.

New this year

CESA finalists in each of the following categories will be named recipients of the new MSU Distinguished Partnership Awards, and recognized at a ceremony in late February:

- Community-engaged research
- Community-engaged creative activity
- Community-engaged teaching
- Community-engaged service

Nominations

Faculty, administrators, colleagues, students, or community partners can initiate nominations; self-nominations are also welcome. It is expected that nominees will be aware of the nomination and will participate significantly in preparation of the application. Applications must be submitted to the dean or administrator of the nominee's major administrative unit (MAU) to be forwarded for University-level consideration.
